Theatre in the Arcade

I am delighted to welcome The Community of Hungerford Theatre Company to the Hungerford Arcade for this theatrical first. A great deal of hard work has been needed by a large team of people to make it a reality and I hope you feel the effort has been worthwhile!

The team certainly hope that you enjoy the evening and that this will be the first of a number of theatrical events we hope to host in this unique venue.

A Cream Cracker Under the Settee — a dramatic monologue written by Alan Bennett in 1988 as part of his award-winning ‘Talking Heads’ series for the BBC.

It featured Thora Hird as Doris, a lonely widow who has visits from Zulema, the home help, except Doris thinks she's more of a hindrance who won't let her do housework. “I'm the only person who stands between you and Stafford House” says Zulema. But independent Doris does some dusting, takes a tumble and ends up on the floor unable to move. While remembering her late husband and the child they nearly had, she spots a cream cracker under the settee That will do for evidence against Zulema if she threatens Doris with Stafford House again

Doris — Helen Bonner

A Dog's Life — by Pam Valentine

Centred around the lives of four dogs in a re-homing centre: Ginger, a puppy, is obsessed by food. Ben, the dog of a tramp, was confused as to why he was taken from his master and placed in the kennels. Fritz, an ex-army dog, hates children and takes his fun from teasing Fifi a French poodle, who is in the kennel beside him. However, when a visitor comes round to view the dogs, what happens is not what you might think.
